

Looking for happiness? Oh boy, do we have a job for you!

About the job

We need your help and therefore invite you to come to Denmark and meet the Danes, explore the homes, the habits and the 'hygge' of this happy little country. By visiting, dining, talking, listening and communicating you will help us find all the keys to a real home of happiness. Keys we will share with the rest of the world – and hopefully make everyone in it, just a little bit happier.

Who are you?

- You are the curious kind, perhaps even born with a magnifying glass in your hand
- You love to travel and meet new people and cultures
- You are of legal age in the country where you are coming from and have at least 18 years of experience as a human being
- You live on planet Earth (or an international space station)
- You love being in front of a camera and in the spotlight
- And you have always wanted to find the secret to happiness

We can offer

- Your own temporary home in Copenhagen, ready to be filled with happiness
- Two weeks of getting close and personal with the Danes in September*
- Days filled with home visits, guided tours, talks and dinners and off course time on your own to explore
- Free 'köttbullar' at the IKEA restaurant
- We'll pay you a token amount as a salary (ex. VAT) for your services*
- As a good host, we'll facilitate and cover your travel expenses*

NB. Prepare yourself for rainy days.

Terms & conditions:

You can apply between 15th of April – 1st of July 2019. IKEA Denmark A/S will choose an applicant in mid-July 2019. The applicant will be contacted directly, and will also be announced on IKEAhomeview.com.

To be able to apply, you need to be of legal age in your country, at least 18 years of age and non-Danish – you can't participate if you live in Denmark or have a Danish citizenship.

IKEA employees, IKEA suppliers and members of their households can't participate.

You need to be able to travel for 14 days in September 2019.

You need to be able to get a Danish visa, if necessary.

The winner will be presented to a contract to sign, prior to departure with full details of the terms and conditions of the stay, including insurance terms.

IKEA Denmark will facilitate and cover the travel expenses according to IKEA DANMARK A/S Travel terms.

IKEA Denmark will supply you with an apartment and salary corresponding to the average Danish living standards minus average Danish taxes. If the winner is obliged to pay tax on their premium in their home country, they must ensure this themselves.

The competition takes place according to Danish rules and conditions referring to the Danish Marketing Practices Act.
